Re: UBS Real Estate Securities, Inc.
v.
County Trust Mortgage Banker Corp.
Case No. 07-CV- 3700

Dear Judge Scheindlin:

Thank you very much for allowing me time to obtain required Certificates from the Clerk's of the Courts where I am admitted to practice, to find a sponsoring attorney to file the appropriate Motion to Admit Counsel Pro Hac Vice in compliance with your local rules.

I also received a copy of Mr. Miller's Motion for Entry of Default Judgment and his memorandum regarding my previous application, motion and pleadings that I filed subject to the Court's approval of my Pro Hac Vice motion.

I understand his arguments.

I already requested the certificates from the Clerk of the different courts but I have not been able to find the sponsoring attorney and do not anticipated finding one; therefore, please consider this letter as my notice of withdrawal of my previous application for authority to practice before you in this case (Pro Hac Vice motion).

County Trust is continuing its efforts, within its very limited financial resources, to find counsel to represent it in this case.

Defendants may have one last opportunity to appear through counsel. If no counsel has appeared by August 24, 2007, the Court will consider Plaintiff's motion for a default judgment.

County Trust and I respectfully request that you allow them an additional thirty (30) days to find counsel.

Thank you again for your courtesies.

Respectfully yours,
